Let's Rediscover Japan & World

Guest Speaker: Ms. Sarah Harrison

"Industrial Manchester - the Pride and Shame of Britain".

えいこく の マンチェスター 出身のサラ・ハリソンさんが、マンチェスターで始まった「産業革命」について英語でスピーチをします。当時の人々のライフスタイルや、街への影響など、詳しくお話しいたします。

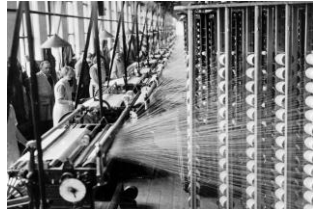

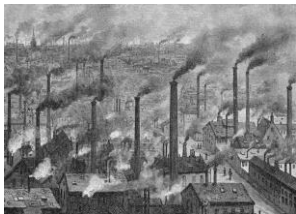

Summary:

"Nowadays, the city of Manchester is known for its football teams and rock bands.

Visitors today can enjoy great shopping, food and cultural experiences.

However, look a little closer and you will find evidence of Manchester's remarkable past - a past of innovation, grit, perseverance and suffering.

In this talk, I'd like to address the world-famous industrial revolution, which began in Manchester - my home town! Most of you will have already studied the importance of this revolution in history; but I will take a more close-up view of what lifestyles were like for the people of Manchester during this time, and how the industrial experience has impacted the city - from its architecture, to its work culture, and to the mindsets of its citizens. I'll also talk about the ingenious inventions of innovative Mancunians, and how these changed the world. "

Speaker's Profile:

Originally from Manchester in the UK, Sarah first came to Japan in 2015 to spend a year as an exchange student at the University of Tokyo. Since graduating, she's spent five years working as a teacher in the Kanto area. With a background in philosophy, Sarah has a keen interest in the differences between philosophical traditions in Europe and Asia, and the effects these philosophical differences have had on our societies. As well as Western classical philosophy, she has studied Chinese philosophy and Japanese religion, and wrote her dissertation on Buddhist ethics.
